Southland Gaming & Racing Welcomes New Community Outreach Manager Johnekia Catron

WEST MEMPHIS, AR (August 17, 2018) – Southland Gaming & Racing is pleased to welcome Johnekia (Neki) Catron as the new Community Outreach Manager. Neki will focus her talents on Southland’s charitable platform Southland All in for Strong Communities and increase Southland’s strategic investment in organizations while strengthening local community ties.

David Wolf, President and General Manager of Southland Gaming & Racing said, “Southland Gaming has long been a fundamental fixture in our community. We do our part by not only providing jobs and business stability, but also through economic contributions, including millions of dollars of donations to neighborhood charities and educational institutions. We look forward to Neki continuing to build upon Southland’s history of service and impact in the community.”

Neki’s career has spanned over 17 years working in the non-profit and for-profit sector in Development. She has worked for organizations such as ALSAC/St. Jude Children’s Research Hospital, Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare, and The Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Memphis. Neki earned a Bachelor’s of Science degree at the University of Tennessee, Chattanooga and a Master’s of Health Service Administration at Strayer University, Memphis. Neki Catron can be reached at jcatron@delawarenorth.com.
